

'Students are proud of their school.....no matter what their needs they are valued and included.'

'Staff know the sensory, emotional, physical and behaviour needs of each student very well.'

'Students get on well with each other. They have warm and trusting relationships with staff. Staff help students to understand the impact of unkind words and help them to resolve differences. Students learn to understand each other and respect and accept each other's uniqueness.'

'School is a safe place...students know they have adults they can talk to...students know that staff will keep them safe.'

'The Focus on personal development, communication and independence allows students to achieve well. Many exceed their education, health, and care plan targets.'

'Teachers choose activities that will engage students, fire their imagination, and deepen learning. They are creative and innovative in the ways they bring learning to life.'

Inspectors concluded that we continue to be a GOOD school. the whole school is proud of its achievements and success

'Leaders design the curriculum to ensure that all ...experience a broad and rich range of subjects that meet their needs and interests.... Making sure they are well prepared for the next stage in learning'.

'Students work well together to enjoy an exciting range of subjects.'

For the full report click on the OFSTED logo on the home page